I left substantive changes tracked so you can see what I did. Even though tracked changes look blue, I am ~95% sure I made sure all new language is red.

Most of it seems straightforward, but I do want to note that I edited out references to DEP providing us draft submission package elements by this Friday. Given the new directive to get the rule to OFARR 9/21 and into NOPR public commenting 9/28, I seriously doubt that is happening. I expect we'll see those elements sometime after 9/18, but without specifics thought it better to just leave that element out.
